

Intellectual Property and Regulation of the Internet: The Nexus with Human and Economic Development

19-20 February 2015

PROGRAMME

Thursday 19 February 2015

9.00am Opening and Overview of Workshop Theme and Aims

9.15am Innovation and IP Purposes

Is it Copyright's Role to Fill Houses with Books?

Rebecca Giblin, Monash University, School of Law

The Internet and Intellectual Property Rights: A Happy Combination

Estelle Derclaye, The University of Nottingham, Faculty of Social Sciences

Commentators:

Peter Drahos, The Australian National University

Daniel Gervais

Annette Kur

General discussion

10.45am Morning Tea

11.15am Institutional Influences and Responses

Conjectures on Governance and Wholesale Copyright Licensing

Adriane Porcin, Faculty of Law, University of Manitoba

Re-conceptualizing the Role of Intellectual Property in Development?:

Regulation of the Internet as a Global Public Resource

Ruth Okediji, University of Minnesota

Commentators:

Peter Drahos

Rebecca Giblin

Chris Nixon, NZIER

General discussion

1.15pm Lunch

2.15pm Knowledge and Innovation

Towering Wave or Tempest in a Teapot? Synthetic Biology, Access & Benefit Sharing, and Economic Development

Margo Bagley, University of Virginia

A Judge's Perspective on the IP-TK Clash

Justice Joe Williams, Judge of the High Court of New Zealand

Commentators:

Peter Drahos

Ruth Okediji

Susy Frankel

General discussion

3.45pm Afternoon Tea

4.15pm Symbols and the Consumer

Annette Kur, Max Planck Institute for Innovation and Competition

Commentators:

Peter Drahos

Estelle Derclaye

General Discussion

5.00pm End of Day

6.30pm Dinner (transport will leave at 5.50pm from 1 Queens Wharf)

Friday 20 February 2015

9.00am Regulation to change whose behaviour and what outcomes

What could happen if intellectual property is treated seriously as a regulatory regime?

Susy Frankel, Faculty of Law, Victoria University of Wellington

Uber Regulation

Daniel Gervais, Vanderbilt Law School

Commentators:

Peter Drahos, The Australian National University

John Yeabsley, NZIER

Adriane Porcin

General discussion

11.00am Morning Tea

11.30am Questions from the hat

1.00pm Lunch
