Queen Mary University of London

Postgraduate research opportunities in the School of Geography at QMUL

Geography MA/MSc/MRes topics for 2018-19 entry

- Collaborative research with The Geffrye Museum of the Home, via the Centre for Studies of Home, on past and present geographies of home, including research on home, migration and the city: Professor Alison Blunt: a.m.blunt@qmul.ac.uk

- Collaborative research with Eastside Community Heritage on community heritage, identity, migration and urban change: Professor Alison Blunt: a.m.blunt@qmul.ac.uk

- Critical public health; global health; historical perspectives on urban environment and health: Dr Tim Brown: tim.brown@qmul.ac.uk

- Migration, gender and development; migrant financial practices related to remittances, philanthropy, credit and debt; digital financial inclusion: Professor Kavita Datta: k.datta@qmul.ac.uk

- Matters of urban public space and culture; the representation and imagination of cities; food, dining and consumption practices; social entrepreneurism: Dr Regan Koch: r.koch@qmul.ac.uk

- Food banks, welfare change/restructuring, asylum, destitution, homelessness, urban marginality: Professor Jon May (from September 2018): j.may@qmul.ac.uk

- Knowledge infrastructure and regional innovation in the European South; Foreign Direct Investment (FDI) and local economic development: Dr Konstantinos Melachroinos: k.melachroinos@qmul.ac.uk

- Streets, parks and squares: space and sociability in 18th-Century London; New Spaces, New Publics?: inclusion and exclusion in London's public spaces: Professor Miles Ogborn: m.j.ogborn@qmul.ac.uk

- Labour governance; global production networks; Global South: Dr Gale Raj-Reichert: g.raj-reichert@qmul.ac.uk

- Vital geographies; humanitarianism; historical geographies of development; democratic theory and public reason: Dr Simon Reid-Henry: s.reid-henry@qmul.ac.uk

- Macro-regional integration and uneven development: how integration impacts on development; Global value chains and development: evaluating the effectiveness of labour standards implementation; Free trade agreements and sustainable development: comparing the US and the EU's models: Professor Adrian Smith (from January 2018): a.m.smith@qmul.ac.uk

- Critical geographies of biomedicine; political geographies of global health and development; geographies of philanthropic practices in contemporary and historical perspective: Dr Stephen Taylor: stephen.taylor@qmul.ac.uk