

QMUL School of Geography

Book your place/s direct with Kate Amis at k.amis@qmul.ac.uk

	Date	For	Topic	Purpose
	Saturday 6th October 10am onwards 2018	Everyone – especially those currently making university choices	Open day to include taster lectures, tour of facilities, introduction to the School of Geography, opportunity to speak informally to current students and academic staff. You can find out more and book online at https://www.qmul.ac.uk/undergraduate/openday	Open day
	Wednesday October 17th 2018 4.30 – 5.45pm Refreshments available from 4.15pm	Sixth formers, teachers, undergraduates and lecturers	A series of short lectures by a selection of our 3rd Year undergraduates on their dissertation research. These comprise Danial on The Urban identity of Fort Worth, USA, Oli on How the Globalisation of Football has changed West Ham United, Kendra on modelling the effect of climate on Swiss avalanches and Livia on Plastic bottle pollution in the River Thames. There will be opportunities to ask questions and find out more about how to carry out and write up research in both physical and human geography. This will be especially of interest to A Level students thinking about or currently tackling their A Level individual investigation.	Modelling some research techniques which sixth formers may be interested in for their own individual investigations Useful case study material to add breadth and depth to A Level study Inspire and motivate younger students about the realities of University level study
	Wednesday November 14th 2018 4.45- 5.45pm Refreshments available from 4.15pm	Sixth formers, teachers, undergraduates and lecturers	Lecture for sixth formers and teachers Dr Anna Bourne delivers a lecture on tectonic hazards Not all tectonic events are born equal – what turns risk into disaster? Dr Bourne will give a summary of tectonic processes before looking at different approaches to tectonic risk management in different parts of the world	Stretch and challenge for sixth formers. If you have GCSE students who would like to attend please enquire before booking Students may attend unaccompanied

	Thursday 29th November 2018 6.30pm	A level students and teachers	The annual David M Smith lecture at QMUL Professor Gill Valentine Popular Understandings of Tolerance: What can we learn from European societies with contrasting levels of diversity? Gill is an urban and social geographer with research interests in Social Identities and Belonging; Childhood, Parenting and Family Life; Urban Cultures and Consumption. She is a Professor of Geography and Deputy Vice Chancellor at the University of Sheffield	Stretch and challenge for engaged A level students
	Saturday 26th January 2019 10am – 4pm	Teachers	A Sense of the East End Kate Amis our Schools Liaison Officer, leads a day of fieldwork in the Spitalfields and Banglatown Ward aimed at engaging all our senses, getting to know the area and trying out fieldwork techniques along the way. Come and taste, smell, hear, touch and see this changing place for yourself The day includes a lunch (vegetarian curry on Brick Lane), resources and refreshments and is free for all participants. For part of the day we will subdivide and think about how to deliver urban fieldwork to different key stages	Subject knowledge for teachers plus the opportunity to network with other teachers
	Wednesday February 6th 2019 4.45- 5.45pm Refreshments available from 4.15pm	A Level students and their teachers	Lecture for sixth formers and teachers Dr Gemma Harvey delivers a lecture on water catchment management systems Who gives a dam? The role of the beaver in sustainable river management? The beavers' dam-building stores huge quantities of water and slows peak flows during flood events, potentially lessening devastating floods. Against the backdrop of an understanding of the complex nature of the water cycle as a system, hear about how beavers may hold a vital solution to mitigating flooding in fresh water catchments	Stretch and challenge for sixth formers. If you have GCSE students who would like to attend please enquire before booking Students may attend unaccompanied

	Dates to suit you – contact Kate direct to sort dates and availability  k.amis@qmul.ac.uk	A Level Geography groups	Changing Places , Gentrification and , Diverse places  Fieldwork activities in the east end of London An opportunity to collect primary data, try out qualitative and quantitative techniques, including use of Goad maps, historical photographs, neighbourhood survey material, data display methods and some semi structured interview coding. All set in the vibrant Spitalfileds area of London Choose between a full day or half day workshop for up to 30 students. All resources provided. Risk Assessment can be provided on request. There is no charge for this activity day but ideally needs to take place on a Mon, Tues or Weds.	Create your own bespoke fieldwork day in the east end of London
	Dates to suit you – contact Kate direct to sort dates and availability  k.amis@qmul.ac.uk	All age groups from Yr 7 to sixth form	A visit by a pair or group of QMUL geography ambassadors to inspire and inform about progression with geography.	School based activity and short talks
 UNIVERSITY OF LONDON	April – during the Easter Holidays  Date will be advised	A Level (Year 12) students considering studying geography at university	University of London Taster Day programme – geography  A full day of lectures and workshops for Year 12 geographers. The focus is on the Individual investigation and learning techniques which will help collect , analyse and display data	Taster day
 UNIVERSITY OF LONDON	April – during the Easter Holidays  Date will be advised	A Level (Year 12) students considering studying environmental science at university	University of London Taster Day programme – environmental science  A full day of lectures and workshops including the use of our labs to find out more about what environmental science has to offer at university	Taster day

	Fri 21st June and Sat 22nd June 2019	A Level geographers, teachers and parents	University Open Days An opportunity to tour the campus, find out more about the School of Geography at QMUL and sample a taster lecture university style http://www.qmul.ac.uk/undergraduate/openday	Open day
--	--	--	--	-----------------

There is no charge for any of our events.

Places are free of charge but must be booked in advance.

Refreshments and a full packs of resources are made available to all participants.

Please book places direct with our Schools Liaison officer, Kate Amis on k.amis@qmul.ac.uk

Please be considerate when booking places and be sure to cancel any places that are no longer required in order that others may make use of them.

If you no longer wish to receive notifications of our events please drop Kate an email and she will remove you from the list.