[j] To approve regulations relating to the admission, supervision, assessment and operation of postgraduate research programmes in addition to those provided for under Academic Standards above.
[k] To approve in place structures and procedures for the consideration of research ethics.

Academic Organisation

[l] To advise the President and Principal and the Council on matters related to the academic organisation of Queen Mary.

[m] To advise Council on the conferral of Honorary Fellows of QMUL and award of Honorary Degrees of the University, upon the recommendation of the appropriate committee.

Other

[n] To regulate the conduct of students and receive reports from the Student Disciplinary and Fitness to Practise Committees.

[o] To advise on any other matter referred to it by the Council or other relevant matters that have a bearing on the academic policy of QMUL.

Membership

[a] The President and Principal as Chair ex-officio

[b] The Vice- Principals ex-officio

[c] The President of the Students’ Union ex-officio

[d] The Students’ Union Vice Presidents for Humanities & Social Sciences, Science & Engineering and Barts and The London ex-officio

[e] Heads of School/Institute (School of Medicine and Dentistry) ex-officio

[f] Faculty Deans of Research and Education ex-officio

[g] Elected members of academic staff so that there is an overall elected majority (including the elected student members). The numbers of elected members of academic staff per faculty may vary to provide for uneven numbers of Heads of School or Heads/Directors of Institute so that there is in total an even number from each Faculty over all membership categories. In the first instance this will be: 9 from HSS; 12 from SMD and 13 from S&E.

Elected members of Senate

2. The call for nominations and elections shall be conducted by the Academic Secretary. The elections shall be conducted by a ballot using a single transferable vote system.

3. All academic staff in the relevant constituencies shall be entitled to stand and to vote. Academic staff are defined in Ordinance B1. In any category, where more than one person stands for election, the Secretary to Council conducts a postal or electronic ballot.
4. Elections are normally held during the second semester prior to the academic year in which an elected member’s period of office shall be due to end.

5. Where a casual vacancy arises because an elected member ceases to be a member before his/her term of office expires, the member replacing him/her shall commence a new term of office of four years and be eligible for re-appointment in the same way as other members.

6. A member who does not attend a meeting for twelve consecutive calendar months shall be deemed to have resigned his/her membership.

Attendance at Senate meetings

7. Individuals in attendance at meetings of Senate, in addition to the Secretary to Senate, do so at the invitation of the Chair.

Boards and Committees of Senate

8. Senate may establish such Boards and Committees as it considers appropriate for the discharge of its responsibilities

Ordinary meetings of Senate

9. The Senate shall meet at least four times per year with meetings scheduled in advance. Scheduled meetings shall also be known as ordinary meetings.

10. The schedule of ordinary meetings shall normally be published by 30 June in the academic year prior to the year in which the meetings are to be held.

11. The quorum for Senate shall be one third of the membership.

12. If a meeting of Senate does not meet quorum, the Chair shall determine whether; a) the meeting shall be postponed and rearranged, or b) that the meeting shall proceed. In the instance of b) all decisions made will be considered preliminary until the agreement has been confirmed by the required number of members to effect the decisions as formal.

Extraordinary meetings of Senate

13. An extraordinary meeting of Senate may be called by the Chair at any time and will be held within a maximum of 21 days.

14. An extraordinary meeting of Senate may be called by the secretary to Senate at the written request of no fewer than one third of the members. Extraordinary meetings shall be held within a maximum of 21 days from the date of the requests to the secretary.
15. The business of an extraordinary meeting of Senate shall be only that business for which the meeting was called. An extraordinary meeting may be held electronically, by circulation or in person.

Circulation of agendas and papers

16. The secretary to Senate normally despatches the agenda and papers to all members for a meeting at least seven days prior to the date of the meeting.

17. Any member of Senate may propose an item for consideration to the agenda by submitting it to the secretary by the relevant published deadline.

18. Any papers not sent with the original circulation shall be circulated by the secretary at least three days prior to the meeting. Only in exceptional circumstances, and with the agreement of the Chair, shall papers be circulated in a shorter timeframe or tabled at the meeting.

19. The agenda for a meeting of Senate may include items marked with an asterisk, which will signify an expectation that these items will pass without discussion. Any member may before the start of a meeting request that the asterisk be removed, to permit discussion of the items.

20. In exceptional circumstances, supplementary agenda items may be taken with the approval of the Chair.

21. Agenda and papers for, and minutes of, any meeting or items relating to reserved business shall be recorded separately and circulated only to those members entitled to receive them.

Conduct of meetings of Senate

22. Any proposal or recommendation which appears on the agenda or in a report submitted to the meeting shall be put to the meeting for resolution. Any amendments to the proposal shall be considered in turn before the overall proposal. If an amendment is carried, the proposal shall be amended accordingly and the amended version considered for approval.

23. It shall be within the discretion of the Chair to set a limit to the length of time to be spent on debate, provided that the mover of any proposal, motion, amendment or item of business has the right of final reply before it is put.

24. Voting at meetings shall be normally by show of hands of those present, not including the Chair. The decision shall be taken in accordance with the majority votes. When equal numbers of votes are cast, the Chair shall have the casting vote.
Acts during vacancies

25. No act or resolution of the Council or any committee or board constituted by it or one of its committees or boards can become invalid by reason only of any vacancy in the body doing or passing it or by reason of any want of qualification by or invalidity in the election or appointment of any de facto member of the body whether present or absent, or by reason of the accidental omission to give any member notice of the meeting or the non-receipt by any member of that notice.

Minutes

26. The secretary to Senate shall be responsible for producing minutes of the meeting and for maintaining the master copies of all minutes and papers.

27. Minutes shall be unconfirmed until approved at the next meeting. After the Chair has agreed the unconfirmed minutes they shall be circulated to members. Any amendments to the unconfirmed minutes agreed at the meeting shall be incorporated into a final version which becomes the confirmed minutes and the formal record of the discussion and decisions.
