How will you learn?

As per the individual programme specifications for each programme, with the addition of the following:

In the third year of your programme you will spend a year with a selected partner abroad, and will be taught according to the teaching and learning strategies of the individual institution.

How will you be assessed?

As per the individual programme specifications for each programme, with the addition of the following:

In the third year of your programme you will spend a year with a selected partner abroad, and will be assessed according to the teaching and learning strategies of the individual institution.

How is the programme structured?

Please specify the structure of the programme diets for all variants of the programme (e.g. full-time, part-time - if applicable). The description should be sufficiently detailed to fully define the structure of the diet.

You will follow the structure of the three year variant with the following additional structure.

Students in their second year failing to apply for a placement for the third year will be transferred on to the 3 year programme at the end of Year 2.

Progression from Year 2 to Year 3 of 'with a year abroad' programmes is subject to the following criteria: 240 credits passed with an average mark of no less than 60.0% . Students who fail to meet the criteria will be transferred to the 3 year programme and be considered for progression under the rules that apply for that programme.

Programme Title:

Progression from Year 3 to Year 4 of 'with a year abroad' programmes is subject to the following criteria: Passing year abroad in third year. Students who fail to meet the criteria will be transferred to the 3 year programme and be considered for progression under the rules that apply for that programme.

Prior to your departure you will meet and liaise with the International Study Tutor (or nominee) to identify the most suitable modules to take during your year abroad. These must then be approved and signed by the School's International Study Tutor (or nominee).

While you're abroad, you'll take a full diet of modules like the 'local' students at the overseas institution. You will need to take the Queen Mary equivalent of 120 credits and pass a minimum of 105 credits, and achieve a minimum year average of 40.0. Your year abroad will be graded pass/fail and zero-weighted in the final calculation of your award classification

During your year abroad, you will be contacted by the School of English and Drama inviting you to select your final year modules prior to your return. You will return to Queen Mary in your final (fourth year) and follow the structure of the degree on which you're enrolled.

If students fail the Year Abroad, then the award title they receive will have the "with Year Abroad" element removed.

What are the entry requirements?

The entry requirements are as stated in the Queen Mary prospectus for current entry, and on the Queen Mary website <http://www.qmul.ac.uk/undergraduate/coursefinder/index.html>

Current students enrolled on the three-year programme are eligible to transfer to the four-year programme in their second year. The transfer should be made using QMUL's Change of Programme of Study Form, which should be signed by the Head of Department (or nominee) and returned to the School of English and Drama Office, who will process and submit the form to the Academic Registry.

The Change of Programme form should only be submitted when the following conditions are met and you have:

- either a weighted average grade of 2.1 across your first year and first semester of your second year (the first semester of the second year is double weighted) (i.e $Y1 + (Y2 \text{ Semester } 1 \times 2) = X/2 = 60+$), or an average of 60 across years one and two (i.e. $Y1 + Y2 = X/2 = 60+$)
- not failed modules in either year (limited to Year 1 and Semester 1 of Year 2 if you meet the conditions for option (1))
- suitable visa arrangements for your selected destination, which have been confirmed by QMUL

Programme Title:

-- applied for and been awarded a place to study abroad in your third year
-- confirmed your module selection (approved by the International Tutor, or nominee)
