

The Queen Mary-Basel University Graduate Colloquium: Global Encounters

Senior Common Room, ArtsTwo,
Queen Mary University of London,
Mile End Road,
November 28th-29th 2013

Image credit: flickr images Kyle Taylor

Image credit: flickr images Michelle Kinsey Bruns

www.history.qmul.ac.uk

3pm Greetings

Professor Miri Rubin (Queen Mary) and Professor Martin Lengwiler (Basel)

3.30-4.30pm Imperial Representations

Jacob Smith, 'The Victorian War on Terror:
The targeted pursuit of prominent rebels
after the Mutiny of 1857'

Lara Atkin, 'Curious Specimens of Uncouth and Uncivilised Humanity': Five San 'Bushmen' in Britain, 1847-51

4.30-5pm Tea

5-6pm: Southern African Regional Perspectives: 1. Rural Areas

Marcel Dreier, 'Missions, Rural Health Care and Development'

Anna Vögeli, 'Life Course and Political Change in a Former Bantustan Area'

6.30pm Lecture: 10th Annual David Smith
Lecture to be given by Professor Susan Parnell, University of Cape Town:
'Making Cities Fairer'

29th November

9-10.15am: Southern African Regional Perspectives: 2. Anthropology and Botany

Jennifer Chansa, 'The Development of Colonial Mine Labour: Godfrey Wilson
& Broken Hill Mine, 1938-1941'

Tanja Hammel, 'Mary Elizabeth Barber
(1818-1899): Gender, Politics and Natural History in South Africa during the second half of the nineteenth century'

Patrick Grogan, 'Hinrich Lichtenstein and the Berlin-Cape Nexus: Early Nineteenth-Century German Naturalists in the Cape Colony'

10.15-11.30am: Comparative Perspectives on Jewish History

Rodney Reznick, 'Assimilability or Exclusion.
The Alien's Act in South Africa of 1937'

Sabina Bossert, 'David Frankfurter:
Self-perception of an Assassin'

Sandrine Mayoraz, 'Jewish Workers' Riots in the North-western Part of the Pale of Settlement between 1881-1907'

11.30-11.45am Tea

11.45am-12.45pm: Anti-Colonialism and Decolonisation

Itay Lotem, 'A House for Empire? The British Empire and Commonwealth Museum in Bristol: Approaches to the comparative understanding of French and British decolonisation in Africa?'

Patrick Longson, 'The Jameson Raid and the Kruger Telegram in British Popular Consciousness, 1896-1941'

1-2pm Lunch and close

Further Information:

Saul Dubow

email: s.dubow@qmul.ac.uk