MY QUEEN MARY

Don’t just take our word for it, find out what our students love about Queen Mary.

As somebody who has a passion for traveling, I can safely say Queen Mary is more than just a university – providing me with the chance to study in the U.S, expedition in Asia and analyze the politics of Europe, QMUL has not only been an endless source of global opportunities for me but also an anchor.

Roberta, BA Politics

Whenever I think of my year abroad in London, I struggle to put into words how much it meant to me, how much I learned, and how much I loved the entire experience. I could spend the morning in class, the afternoon in a rehearsal, and the evening sitting in a theatre on the West End, and to me, that was the perfect way to combine the academic world with what I enjoyed extracurricularly. I fell in love with London and part of that love is thanks to the opportunities granted to me at Queen Mary.

Miriam, Study Abroad student, Scripps College, CA

So many opportunities have made my time at Queen Mary special. One of my most enjoyable experiences is being part of Queen Mary’s Netball Society, and I would advise anybody who is part of Queen Mary to join a society to make uni life truly memorable.

Charlotte, LLB Law

London may seem daunting on first glance: it’s busy, rushed and something is always happening. However, QM’s tight-knit campus, Harry Potter and Cheerleading society makes the city feel more comfortable and homey. Whether you want to go for drinks at the Shard or roam Camden Market, you can return to campus to relax and regroup after a busy day.

Shola, BA English

I would argue that anyone who visits London should make spending time in the East End a priority of their trip. It’s a place that emphasizes living with difference, living as a community, and enjoying all that life has to offer. To say that I’m grateful for my time here, especially in the East End, would be an understatement.

Rachel, Study Abroad student, Wesleyan University, MA

What I will cherish the most is the friendships and mentorships I have received at Queen Mary. My favourite professor here was Mojisola Adebayo. During the first day, she asked me what I wanted to explore in her class. As a result, I became much more aware of British East Asian theater and also more involved in the community. I feel so grateful to know her because even though I only met her once or twice a week, she made me feel at home in London.

Unique, Study Abroad student, Wesleyan University, MA

Queen Mary has a very special place in my heart. It has provided me with opportunities that few other universities could. It has allowed me to express myself both personally and academically and I’m incredibly optimistic about my future. Not only has it been my home for two years, but it has sparked up a new world for me to explore, new people to meet and new things to learn, and for that reason I could not be more grateful.

Kyan, BA History

LOCATION
a day in east London

Ask any twenty-something Londoner the best place to explore and live in London and chances are east London will be up there on the list! Queen Mary is situated in the heart of east London one of the City’s most vibrant and cosmopolitan areas – our very own version of a hipster downtown location. Think what Brooklyn is to NYC or Downtown Philadelphia and you get the idea. The East offers contrasts unlike any other area of London, from the bustle of street markets to peaceful walks along Regiment’s Canal and through Victoria Park, traditional pubs, museums, start-ups and art galleries. Studying at Queen Mary gives you a unique East End experience where you can enjoy authentic London life and get a true taste of life as a local.

FIND A COFFEE SPOT

Start the day with a walk along Regents Canal (right next to Queen Mary campus) and head towards Victoria Park for a coffee at Pavilion Café overlooking the water.

HIT A MARKET
9.30 AM

You can’t have a day exploring Shoreditch and not take some time out to look at the incredible street art. The streets are awash with colours and artistic flair!

GRAB SOME LUNCH
