CCLS Induction
LLM Paris

Monday 9th September 2019
10h – 12h30: Room TBC
• Coffee/Tea on arrival.
• Welcome from the Programme Director and Introductions (students and staff)
• Induction pack
• Library introduction
• IT explained
• Introduction to the electronic learning environment (QMPlus)

12h30 – 14h: Lunch, ULIP Dining Area

14h-15h: Room TBC
• Academic Introduction to the LLM
• Overview of modules and specialisms by the Programme and Specialism Convenors – part 1

15h-17h: Room TBC
• Enrolment
This takes place on a 1-1 basis. It is essential that you bring (i) your passport, (ii) a printed copy of your pre-enrolment certificate, (iii) copies of all original documents (certificates and transcripts), (iv) proof of payment of at least 50% of your tuition fees, (v) your English Language Certificate (as applicable) and (vi) your European Health Insurance Cards (as applicable).

Students will enrol at different stages during the afternoon, before being given a tour of the building.

Whilst other students enrol, those waiting will be able to:
• Read through the induction pack
• Ask questions and discuss any matters with the Programme team
• Have photos taken for ID cards

18h onwards: Informal drinks nearby for those interested, at O’Brien’s Irish Pub, 77 Rue Saint-Dominique, Paris 7e.

Tuesday 10th September 2019
10h-13h: Room TBC
• Overview of modules and specialisms by the Programme and Specialism Convenors – part 2
• Opportunity to further discuss your plans with the Programme and Specialism Convenors.
• Includes short coffee break in the ULIP Dining Area
13h – 14h30: Lunch, ULIP Dining Area, with current LLM Paris students

14h30 – 16h: Room TBC
- Introduction to the Dissertation
- Continuation of module overview, if required
- Module choices – practical information from the Programme Co-ordinator
- For any outstanding questions regarding module choices, now is the time to ask!

18h for 18h30 start: OPENING LECTURE

"Artificial Intelligence and Corporate Governance"

Starting with a presentation on the topic by Queen Mary's Professor Alan Dignam, discussion will ensue, as moderated by Professor Jonathan Griffiths of CCLS, with Bertrand Delafaye from MWE, and Bruno Massot, General Counsel at IBM and Leader of the AFJE’s Digital Taskforce.

Followed by a drinks reception. Hosted by McDermott, Will & Emery, co-sponsors of the CCLS-MWE-AFJE LLM Paris Scholarship
Location: 23, rue de l'Université, Paris 7ème

Wednesday 11th September 2019
9h30 – 11h: Room TBC
- Introduction to Critical Thinking and Writing in Law (CTWL)
- Followed by coffee break

11h15 – 13h: Room TBC
- Critical Thinking and Writing in Law (CTWL) taster session

Free afternoon – opportunity to catch up on settling in to your life in Paris! The LLM team will be available by appointment, if required, and Social Security registration (if applicable) will be available from 16h onwards in the Student Services Office, Ground Floor

Thursday 12th September 2019
10h – 13h: Room TBC
- Introduction to Careers Support
- Introduction to qLegal
- Introduction to Amicus Curiae project
- Information re the Staff-Student Liaison Committee
- Making sure you are connected
- Submission of module choices form and all other Induction forms, pick up ID cards, and closing remarks.

Free afternoon – opportunity to arrange a 1-2-1 advice session with the Professional Development team.
Availability: Thursday 13h-17h; Friday 9h30-13h. Contact Mara Gardner on m.gardner@qmul.ac.uk