

Queen Mary University of London, Postgraduate Law Conference 2023

Law, Society and Inequality

Thursday 22nd June – Friday 23rd June

Thursday 22 nd June 2023 (Room GC701)
9:00 – 9:30	Registration & Coffee
9:30 – 11am	Law and gender inequality Chair: Dr. Roxana Banu
	The Gender Influence Bias in Law, Legal Concepts and Judicial Reasoning: Assessing its Contribution to Defining the Reasonable Person in English Law from Feminist Perspectives. Oluwabunmi Adaramola, University of Leeds
	Gender-based violence and migrant women in Ireland Carmel Nolan, Dublin City University
11:00 – 11:30	Coffee Break
11:30 – 13:00	Rights, the State and Inequality Chair: Dr. Alexis Javier Alvarez Nakagawa
	Interamerican Court of Rights, poverty and structural discrimination Stefania Rainaldi, Queen Mary University of London
	Replacing the Human Rights Act 1998: A Move which could lead to an inferior rights protection mechanism in the UK Ayesha Riaz, Queen Mary University of London
	Risks of the Agency of the Brazilian Evangelical Parliamentary Caucus of the Chamber of Deputies for Human Rights Fabio Henrique Oliveira da Cruz, Pontifical Catholic University of Parana - Brazil
13:00 – 14:00	Lunch Break
14:00 – 15:30	Culture and Policymaking Chair: Dr. Isobel Roele
	Marginalized Children and Women: Rethinking Human Rights through the Eastern Expansion of the Hague Child Abduction Convention Yijia Liu, Queen Mary University of London
	Toward Aligning with International Gender Goals? Analysis of the gender equality landscape in Japan under the laws on women's economic and political participation and leadership Ayako Hatano, University of Oxford
	Problems concerning the protection of shared traditional cultural expressions: a case study of shared performing arts in southeast Asia Nadnaphas Leakpech, University of Leeds
15:45 – 17:15	Law, Technology and Equality Chair: Dr Dimitri Van Den Meerssche
	Tackling unequal access to gene editing technologies like CRISPR-Cas9 with the help of patent law? Analysis based on the patentability exclusions provided in Art 6(2) of the EU Biotech Directive

	Mihail Dishev, University of Edinburgh
	Exploring the Way to Protect Privacy in the Electronic Workplace: A Comparative Perspective Study from the UK, EU, Australia, and China Danyang Guo, Tsinghua University, University of Oxford.
	Rectifying Injustice in Social Media Moderation: Procedural Fetishism in the Digital Services Act Rachel Griffin, SciencesPo - Paris.
17:15 – 18:00	Coffee Break
18:00 – 19:00	Keynote lecture by Professor Sally Sheldon, chaired by Professor Maksymilian Del Mar
19:00 – 21:00	Dinner

Friday 23rd June 2023 (Room GC701)
9:00 – 9:30	Reception and coffee
9:30 – 10:45	The State, Inequality, and Distribution of Resources Chair: Dr. Maria Ioannidou
	Legal form and social change from the ‘withering away’ perspective Fernando Quintana, Queen Mary University of London
	The Role of the Public Sector Equality Duty in the Planning of Healthcare Commissioning: Older Patients and Justice Yvoni Komodromou, Queen Mary University of London
	Understanding the State of Water in India: an unequal crisis, the law, and the governance landscape Kanika Jamwal, National University of Singapore
11:00 – 12:30	Mental Health and Access to Justice Chair: Dr. Camillia Kong
	To What Extent Do Asylum Authorities in the UK Adjust the Decision-making Process for Asylum Applicants suffering from Trauma Based Illnesses such as PTSD? Hasna Sheikh, Queen Mary University of London
	Interrogating the Interrelationship between Law, Science and Lived Experience: a study of Legal Recognition of Sex/Gender Mihika Poddar, University of Oxford
	Equality doesn’t always mean integration: the right to education for neurodiverse people Chelsea Wallis, University of Oxford
12:30 – 13:30	Lunch Break
13:30 – 15:30	Law, Poverty and Borders Chair: Dr Jeevan Hariharan
	Energy Sector Reforms for the Empowerment and Protection of the Consumer: an empirical study on Aligarh Smart City, India Mohammad Asif, Aligarh Muslim University
	The Evolution of the World System and the Reform of the International Corporate Tax System

	Xiaoyu Meng, Central University of Finance and Economics, Beijing, P. R. China
	Challenging Italy's closed port policies as a racial discrimination: a new avenue for accountability, or a case study in the shortcomings of international law? Amanda Danson Brown, Queen Mary University of London
	Criminalising sea rescues: a wrongful conduct triggering Italy's international responsibility? Merna Nasralla, Queen Mary University of London
15:30 – 16:00	Coffee Break
16:00 – 17:30	Access to Justice in the Adjudication Process Chair: Professor Maksymilian Del Mar
	Equalising Power in Mediation Viktoriiia Hamaiunova, Newcastle University
	The Use of Customary Practices as a Tool for Realisation of justice Samuel Bestman, De Montfort University
	Locating (In)Justice in the Anti-Sexual Harassment Laws in India: a Study of University Spaces Atreyee Sengupta, School of Oriental and African Studies University of London