Timetable

10:30-11:00  Registration and refreshments

11:00-11:15  Welcome and introduction – Dr Shabnam Beheshti (QMUL)

11:15-11:45  The crux of stepping aside - to the left or to the right? - Dr Marie-Therese Wolfram (University of Warwick)

11:50-12:20  Computational algebra and topology: how does this inform biological process? - Dr Heather Harrington (University of Oxford)

12:20-12:40  Breakout activity

12:40-13:40  Join us for a buffet lunch, PLUS:
  ▪ Chat to our Careers & Enterprise team
  ▪ Discover our PhD opportunities
  ▪ Visit our Newham Bookshop stand
  ▪ Optional campus tours for visitors

13:40-14:10  From diffusing diseases with Dustin Hoffman to making microbes with mathematical models - Prof Ivana Gudelj (University of Exeter)

14:10-14:50  The mathematics of musical structures: from harmony to heartbeats – Prof Elaine Chew (QMUL)

14:50-15:10  Coffee break

15:10-15:45  Careers in Industry – panel with Queen Mary alumni

15:45-16:15  Hidden figures: the stats behind CSI - Dr Tereza Neocleous (University of Glasgow)

16:15-17:15  Poster and Networking Reception

Find out more and register: qmul.ac.uk/maths/wim2019