

Queen Mary Futures – Summary of Criteria for Subject Strands

Subject Strand	Subject requirements	Potential additional consideration*
Economics and Finance	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Must be studying A level Maths 	Students who identify as Female
Maths, Electronic Engineering and Computer Science	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Must be studying A level Maths
Engineering and Materials Science	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Must be studying A Level Maths + A Level Physics OR Chemistry If students are studying BTECs, this must be alongside A level Maths
Biological and Behavioural Sciences	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Must be studying A level Biology OR Chemistry + a second science 	Students who identify as Male
English, Drama, Languages & Film	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> No specific subject requirements 	Students studying A level Drama
Physical and Chemical Sciences	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Preference for Chemistry: Must be studying A level Biology OR A level Chemistry + one other science at A level (inc. Maths/Further Maths and Psychology) Preference for Physics: No specific subject requirements
Geography and History	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> No specific subject requirements
All Subject Strands	For any students studying BTECs, please check requirements here: https://www.qmul.ac.uk/undergraduate/apply/entry/btec/

*Additional consideration may only be shown to students who are currently underrepresented as a proportion of those studying in certain subject areas at Queen Mary.

Additional consideration will only be shown to relevant students where:

- Applications outnumber available places for relevant subject strands
- All other programme eligibility criteria has been met
- Competing applications are scored equally, once all other application assessment criteria have been taken into account