

MIGRATION AND BORDER STUDIES: PROSPECTS AND POSSIBILITIES WITHIN AND BEYOND ACADEMIA

09.30	Registration and morning coffee
10.00	Welcome by organisers
10.15	Keynote address by Professor Audrey Macklin (University of Toronto) Chair: Violeta Moreno-Lax (ICREA-Barcelona & (B)OrderS Centre, QMUL)
11.15	Coffee Break
11.45	Panel 1: ‘Politics of Knowledge Production’ Chair: Ellen Alde ((B)OrderS Centre, QMUL) Jonathan Slagter ((B)OrderS Centre, QMUL): Procedures of Law and the Production of Knowledge about Human Mobility - A ‘Rule of Law’-Critique’ Janina Pescinski (Durham University): ‘Lampedusa Again: Addressing the Problem of Over-Research in Migration Studies’ Yael Gordon (London School of Economics) ‘Experiences of British Hosts: Reflections on the Hospitality Practices for Ukrainian Refugees’ Gianmaria Lenti (La Trobe University) & Bernardo López Marín (Durham University): ‘Navigating the Coloniality of Transit: On migrant (im)mobilities across Mexico, Morocco, and Turkey.’
13.00	Lunch break
14.00	Panel 2: ‘Infrastructures’ Chair: Claire Marshall (University of East London) Kavita Datta et al. (Centre for the Study of Migration, QMUL): MOOC Nam J Huh (Loughborough University): ‘Documenting the In-Between: Post-Internet Documentary and ESEA Migrant Presentation in Media Productions’ Debora Minà (QMUL): ‘Collaborative theatre making as an opportunity to explore, name, and redefine narratives of displacement - the case study of the Luna Project’
15.15	Coffee Break
15.45	Panel 3: ‘Bridging Knowledges: Transdisciplinary Insights’ Chair: Malak Benslama-Dabdoub (Royal Holloway, University of London) Maja Grundler (Northumbria Law School): ‘Bringing Legal Academic Work on Migration to Legal Practitioners: The Need for “Translational Research”’ Perfect Mazani (University of the Western Cape) & Mulugeta Dinbabo (University of the Western Cape): ‘Cross-Border Solidarity: Migrant-Led Associations as Spaces of Epistemic Resistance and Food Security Innovation in South Africa’ Patricia Gorsich (Santa Cecilia University): ‘Between Trauma and Memory: Transgenerational Epigenetics and the Co-production of Knowledge in Refugee Experiences’ Merna Nasralla ((B)OrderS Centre, QMUL): ‘Bridging the Gap: Co-Producing Knowledge on EU-Linked Violations Against Migrants in Libya with Activists and Those with Lived Experience’
17.00	Drinks Reception
19.00	End of day 1

MIGRATION AND BORDER STUDIES: PROSPECTS AND POSSIBILITIES WITHIN AND BEYOND ACADEMIA

09.00	Morning coffee
09.30	Keynote address by Professor Jonathan Crush (Wilfrid Laurier University) ‘The Mythology of Mixed Migration and the Southern Route in Africa’ Chair: Rachel Humphris (Centre for the Study of Migration, QMUL)
10.30	Coffee Break
11.00	Panel 4: ‘Diverse Epistemologies / knowledge from the bottom-up’ Chair: Madeleine Berry (QMUL) Moira Dustin (University of Sussex): ‘Feminist theory: tools for knowledge exchange and research with and for refugee women’ Marco Perolini (LSE): ‘Border abolitionism and the production of knowledge from below: reflections and way forward’ Nicolette Busuttil (SOAS) & Sophie Cartwright (University of Oxford): ‘Disability and Displacement: Challenging the Hostile Environment through transformative solidarity’ Hannah Owens (University of Hertfordshire): ‘The unplanned, abstract, incomplete and unexplained: Migrant storytelling as knowledge production beyond the academy’
12.15	Lunch break
13.15	Panel 5: ‘Embodied Knowledge(s)’ Chair: Rachel Tribe (University of East London) Giorgia Donà (University of East London) & Marie Godin (University of Leicester & University of Oxford): ‘Embodied and visual encounters with the border Possibilities for creatively reversing the gaze’ Palwasha Amanullah (Sheffield University): ‘Between Conflicts, Undocumented Identities and Precarious Temporalities: Framing the Bordering Practices in Quetta’ Jelena Tosic (Universität St.Gallen): ‘Moving, not to move: anti-authoritarianism, reclaiming society and disrupting the “migrant-per-default” image in shifting Europe(s)’ Priscilla C. Okoye (Lewisham Refugee Migrant Network): ‘The Impact of Migration as a Status Symbol on Migrants’ Mental Health: A Critical Psychological Inquiry’
14.30	Coffee Break
15.00	Panel 6: ‘Imaginaries / futures / trajectories’ Chair: Shenghao Hu (QMUL) Mariana Duarte (University of Edinburgh): ‘A Camera in the Water: Reframing the Migrant Image in Documentary Film’ Eunice Annan-Aggrey (Balsillie School of International Affairs, Waterloo): ‘Redefining diaspora transfers as climate change investment’ Enes Ateş & Mehmet İhsan Özdemir (Mardin Artuklu University): ‘(Rethinking) Voluntary Return beyond Safety: Aspirational Mobilities across the Syria–Türkiye Border’ Lilian Bankiyan-Monfard (SOAS): ‘How can disability as a lens enhance our understanding of borders and forced migration?’
16.15	Closing by organisers
16.30	End of conference

