

Queen Mary
University of London

Environmental Sustainability Champions

Introduction

Who we are?

- Pan-university
- Academic and Professional Service staff
- Volunteers
- Work with (but independent from) the QMUL Sustainability Team
- Professional or personal interest in sustainability
- Historically completed the Sustainability Skills in the Workforce training provided by the Sustainability Team (in process of changing this)

Our goals?

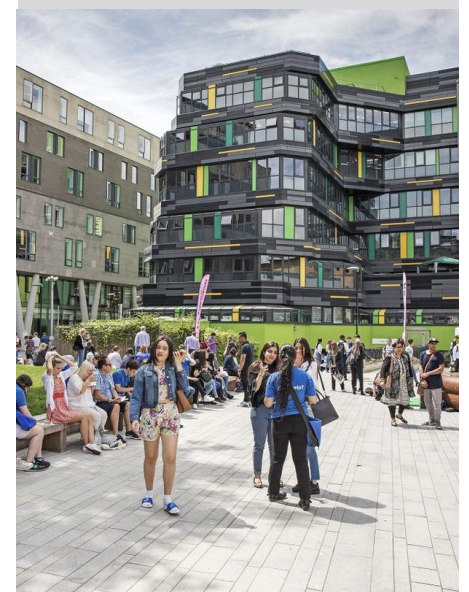

We want to help QMUL become a more sustainable place

- Help drive the incorporation of sustainable practices throughout all core activities, representing the staff voice, e.g.
 - Catering
 - Waste management
- Encourage more sustainable behaviours among staff and students at various levels:
 - Schools/Institutes/PS Departments
 - Teams
 - Individuals

How we operate?

- Meet monthly as a group
 - Departmental updates (SU, Catering)
 - School/Institute/ PS Department updates
 - Issues: commonality?
 - Solutions: bigger perspective/ share best practice
 - Research and Education related opportunities
 - Communications and behavioural change
- Trialing SIGs among membership, e.g. “Laboratory”, “Food” etc.
- Representation on QMUL’s Sustainability Committee

Thank you

Queen Mary
University of London