

Zack, aged 16, white British, from inner London

The Bike Incident

1       Zack: no it was like . it was the end of school yeah so that school's finished yeah
2           and everyone was going home
3           and I was getting my bike from the bike rack
4           and I was going out
5           and I was riding my bike
6           and he stopped my bike.
7           I was like "yeah"
8           and he goes "get off the bike"
9           I was like "why am I getting off the bike I'm going home like I've gotta go home" yeah
10          he was like "no get off the bike walk the bike outside of school"
11          I was like "what's the point?"
12          yeah cos like it's quite far like to get out the school from the entrance like in the school yeah
13          and he goes "ah no get off the bike" yeah
14          so like he kind of shoved me off the bike
15          so I dropped it but I didn't fall over like but I kind of stumbled yeah
16          and he put his. he tried to take my bike up to his office like he was gonna keep my bike there.
17          I was like "no" like
18          and this time everyone was gathering round cos we were shouting at each other yeah
19          he was like "no I'm taking your bike upstairs"
20          I was like "what's the point in that when I'm just gonna take it back downstairs"
21          so I must have pulled the bike off him yeah
22          and I put it . I put it I leant it up against the wall yeah
23          and I walked over to him
24          and this is me "what. what's your . what's your problem?"
25          and he goes "I don't like you"
26          I was like "I don't like you" yeah
27          so I just swung for him and then we like .
28          but we had a fight though. [S: did you]
29          and I got kicked out of school .
30          like I weren't allowed into any school that's why I came here last year