

Queen Mary
University of London

Summer School 2023

qmul.ac.uk/summer-school

Contents

Welcome to the Queen Mary Summer School	4	How to apply	18
At a glance	7	Teaching and assessment	20
Why choose the Queen Mary Summer School?	8	Accommodation and campus life	23
Our east London	11	Social programme	24
Our Courses	12	Fees, finance and discounts	26

Our Mile End campus

Welcome to the Queen Mary Summer School

If you're keen to expand on your current studies and want to explore a new city, the Queen Mary Summer School is the ideal place to start. With a range of academically challenging courses on offer in a variety of disciplines, there is something for everyone!

Professor Colin Bailey
President and Principal

Queen Mary is a leading Russell Group university based in London's vibrant East End.

We have a long and distinguished record in undertaking world-leading research and inspirational teaching, with a history stretching back to 1785, when the Royal London medical school was established. With strengths across Humanities, Social Sciences and Creative Industries, Science and Engineering, and Medicine and Dentistry our new Summer School courses have been developed to offer you the opportunity to study 'for credit' or simply to come along and sample some of our classes as a taster before postgraduate study.

Home to staff and students from 162 countries, our campus creates an environment where students, staff and visitors have the opportunity to learn from and respect each other's diverse cultures as well as acting as a gateway to the rest of Europe.

As part of our Summer School, you will have the opportunity to live and study in one of the world's most exciting cities and make friends from around the globe. You will also benefit from the full support of our staff through our Summer School welcome and social programmes.

We look forward to welcoming you this summer.

Professor Colin Bailey
President and Principal

At a glance

Dates

Session 1: 3 July - 21 July 2023
Session 2: 24 July - 11 August 2023

Location

Queen Mary is located in the heart of London's colourful East End, the capital's most vibrant and diverse area!

Fees

£2100 for 1 session
£4000 for 2 sessions

Discounts available, please check the website for details

Accommodation

We have an attractive residential campus with accommodation for all students. Our rooms are ensuite and the price below includes breakfast.

£1029 for 1 session
£2058 for 2 sessions

Credits

Each of our courses are accredited and worth 15 Queen Mary credits. This usually translates to 4 US credits and 7.5 ECTS.

Field Trips

We use the city of London as our classroom! During your time with us you'll really get to know the city on many of our academically led field trips and get some industry insights along the way!

Some field trips incur an additional cost. This cost varies by course, but you can expect to spend approximately £30-100 per session.

Entry requirements

We welcome Summer School students from around the world and accept a range of qualifications equivalent to:

- Minimum 3.0 GPA or B+
- English language requirement of 6.5 IELTS
- Applicants must be aged 18 or over at the time of study.

Why choose Queen Mary?

From our location in the heart of east London – one of the capital’s most dynamic areas – to our welcoming campus, world-leading research and inspiring teaching, there’s a host of reasons to choose Queen Mary for your Summer School experience.

- It’s an academic adventure like no other: you will meet and discuss your subject with some of the world’s leading experts.
- Use the credits achieved on courses towards your home degree, making your summer really count.
- Make friends from across the world and make memories of your international experience that will stay with you for the rest of your life.
- Enhance your employability. According to Universities UK, a study period abroad ‘enhances future employability and academic success’ (2017).
- Gain new perspectives on your academic subjects that you can take back to your home university.

I had the time of my life! I made so many new friends from all over the world and learnt so many new things.

Bashaire from Pakistan
Introduction to International Law course

100%
of Summer School students would recommend it to a friend (2019)

We're located just 15 minutes from Oxford
Circus by tube!

I loved it here, I'd recommend to anyone excited to travel abroad without the commitment of a full year. Mile End now feels like a second home!

Isabelle from the USA
British Horror and Fantasy
Cinema course

Our east London

When you live and study with us, you'll be situated in the heart of east London, one of the coolest parts of the city - a buzzing area full of cafés, restaurants, galleries and bars.

More than anywhere else in the capital it's an energetic mix of the old and the new: from medieval history to hipster hangouts, from peaceful walks along Regent's Canal and leafy Victoria Park to Victorian East End pubs, from late-night music gigs to the coolest art exhibitions, we love east London's energy and its constant ability to surprise us.

Studying at Queen Mary gives you a unique East End experience here you can enjoy authentic east London life. You are exposed to East End culture, an array of different people, places, cuisine and perspectives. East London offers a true taste of life as a local.

Our courses

This year we have broadened our course offering, with courses in a variety of disciplines. Whatever you love – there will be something for you! Students are able to take one course per session and are very welcome to stay for both sessions. You'll have the academic experience of a life time.

Culture and liberal arts

British Horror and Fantasy Cinema from Dracula to Harry Potter

Session 1

Engage with an alternative history of British cinema.

Creative Futures

Session 2

This course focuses on the unique challenges of the workplace in the creative industries, including film, media, and publishing.

The Buildings of London, from the Great Fire to the Present Day

Session 1

Study the architectural and urban history of London from the late seventeenth century to the present day.

Creative Writing Now

Session 1

This course explores contemporary examples of creative writing and English-language literature.

Global Shakespeare

Session 2

This course will look at Shakespeare's afterlives in different parts of the world and include hands-on workshops.

Yankees in London: History of the United States through the Eyes of Americans who Lived, Worked and Partied in London

Session 1

Understand key events in US history by seeing them through the eyes of pivotal Americans who spent significant time visiting, living, studying, working, and partying in London.

Taylor Swift and Literature

Session 1

This course views the lyrics of Taylor Swift as literature, paying close attention to imagery and to formal elements such as rhyme and syntax.

Writing for Performance

Session 2

This course enables participants to initiate, develop and present a piece of creative writing for performance.

Business, politics and law

Business and Society: The Changing World of Work

Session 1

Critically evaluate contemporary trends in the changing world of work. We focus on these trends with a view to understanding their implications for work, employment, and society.

Clinical Legal Education, Access to Justice and Pro Bono Law

Session 2

Learn about clinical legal education, access to justice and the importance of pro bono within the legal system.

Comparative Politics of the UK and USA

Session 2

This course will provide an introduction to the comparative politics of the US and the UK. We will use comparative analysis to throw light on the political systems in both countries.

Introduction to International Law

Session 1

Gain a profound overview of international law and its various areas, its relations to politics, and the current challenges of the international legal system.

Managing Diversity in Business: Creating and Leading Inclusive Organisations

Session 2

This module introduces students to a range of theoretical perspectives relevant to managing equality and diversity in contemporary organisations.

92%

of students found the quality of the teaching to be good or excellent. (2022)

Medicine, science and technology

Cancer Prevention

Session 2

The course will provide clear understanding of the different types of intrinsic and extrinsic factors that are related to the pathogenesis of cancer.

Environmental Impacts in Health and Disease

Session 1

This summer school will provide clear understanding of the different types of environmental exposures that are related with pathogenic mechanisms of human diseases.

The International Politics of Global Health

Session 1

Provides students with an introduction to political theory, a history of international politics and global governance, and to the structure of the global political economy.

The Impact of Trauma on Mental Health

Session 2

This course will address the impact of trauma on mental health as a lifelong process interrupted in some significant way by the pandemic of COVID-19

Practical Machine Learning

Session 2

Study machine learning by using the Python programming language and the TensorFlow™ programming toolkit. (No programming background needed).

Surgical Skills and Science

Session 1

Combining traditional teaching with hands-on practice and simulation, the course aims to deliver comprehensive training on basic surgical skills, as well as introduce fundamental research methodology.

How to apply

To apply for the Queen Mary Summer School you will need to fill out our online application form qmul.ac.uk/summer-school/your-application.

In order to apply you will need to provide these documents:

- your current academic transcript or your record of studies to date
- evidence of your English Language proficiency, if your first language isn't English (Please see our entry requirements for full details)
- a written statement explaining why you'd like to attend the Summer School
- a copy of your passport

We then assess your application and send you an offer letter within 2 working days of your application.

The application deadline is 24 May 2023.

Entry requirements

To join our Summer School, you should have completed a minimum of two semesters' study at your home institution.

We welcome Summer School students from around the world and accept a range of qualifications:

- if your home institution uses the four-point Grade Point Average (GPA) scale, we usually require a 3.0 GPA
- if your home institution uses the letter scale, you will need to have a B+
- if your first language is not English, you must meet our English language requirements. This is typically an IELTS 6.5 or higher.

We welcome international qualifications and we consider every application individually on its academic merit.

Applicants with an alternative qualification should check it is equivalent to the above or contact us at summerschool@qmul.ac.uk.

Teaching and assessment

Teaching

You will be taught through a varied mix of lectures, seminars and academic activities/field trips. You will study by yourself, as well as take part in group work and discussions with academic staff and your fellow students.

Course Structure

All of our courses are taught Monday – Thursday with Friday free. Typically they run from 10 am – 3pm each day with an hour for lunch. Each course is comprised of 45 hours contact time, with 105 hours of personal study.

95%

of students said that they enjoyed the structure of their course (2022)

Assessment

Each course has optional assessments, usually in the form of a written assignment, class presentation or test. Completing these assessments is essential if you wish to get an official Queen Mary transcript and use the credit from your Summer School course at your home institution.

Credit

Each of our Summer School courses is worth 15 Queen Mary credits. This usually translates to 4 credits in the US system and 7.5 ECTS in the European system. Your home institution should confirm if they will grant credit for Summer School courses before you attend the programme.

95%

of students said they enjoyed being at a campus university for Summer School (2022)

Accommodation

As a Queen Mary Summer School student, you will be offered a place on campus in our comfortable accommodation.

Campus Life

Our award-winning, self-contained campus is set beside the Regent's Canal, looking on to Mile End Park. It has a friendly, relaxed atmosphere: with plenty of greenery and attractive outdoor spaces, it's easy to forget that you're in the middle of a bustling capital city. As a Summer School student with us, this is where you will be based if you choose to live on campus.

Our campus has a friendly community of staff and students and is noted for its safety and convenience. You'll just be a short walk away from your classes. On campus, we also have two grocery shops, four cafés, two restaurants, a bar, a health and fitness centre, a bookshop and a bank.

See what its like: for a virtual tour of our rooms and full details of the accommodation options, visit residences.qmul.ac.uk

I was very satisfied with the campus location because it wasn't in the middle of all the tourism and large crowds of people. It was very calming to return to it at the end of the day.

Eleanor from the USA
British Horror and Fantasy Cinema, and London Performance Past and Present

Social programme

To ensure that you are fully immersed in London life, the Queen Mary Summer School has curated a calendar of social activities to accompany your studies.

London as a city is amazing. Everything is very close in proximity, walking can get you anywhere. There's always something happening - you're never bored here.

Edison from the USA
British Horror and Fantasy Cinema and London Performance Past and Present

We hope to give you the full London experience: from traditional British cuisine to exciting hipster hang-outs, all against the vibrant multi-cultural backdrop of the East End. Taking part in our social programme will give you the opportunity to build friendships with your fellow Summer School students, and experience the city from the perspective of a local.

Welcome programme

We want you to feel at home here the moment you arrive, so there will be a number of complimentary events taking place as part of our Welcome Programme in week 1.

We'll give you practical advice about living and studying in London, and host optional social events like a student boat trip down the River Thames, so you get to see London's historic riverside while relaxing with your fellow students.

What's on offer?

Throughout the rest of the Summer School, there will be events running regularly (which may incur a small fee). We will send you more information on the social programme and these optional events before you arrive, so you have plenty of time to plan your social calendar.

Examples of events that have taken place previously include:

- The Lion King musical on the West End

- Tour of Buckingham Palace
- East End Street Art tour
- Junkyard Golf Club
- Trips to Genesis cinema, voted best UK cinema.

It was an unforgettable experience, enriching both intellectually and personally!

Axelle from France
Introduction to International Law course

Fees and finance

Tuition fees

The tuition fees for the Summer School are as follows:

One session: £2100
Both sessions: £4000

Discounts

There is a 10% 'early bird' tuition fee discount available for all students who submit their application before 31 March 2023.

We also offer a 10% discount for applicants who are current Queen Mary students, Queen Mary alumni or a student from a Queen Mary partner institution.

Accommodation

On-campus accommodation costs £1029 for one session and £2058 for both sessions. This fee includes breakfast.

Additional costs

There may be additional costs during the Summer School that you should account for, such as social programme events and field trips.

You can find further information the specific additional costs for each course by visiting our website

qmul.ac.uk/summer-school/what-can-i-study

Find out if your university is a Queen Mary partner

qmul.ac.uk/summer-school/your-application

Summer School Team
Graduate Centre, room GC213
email: summerschool@qmul.ac.uk

qmul.ac.uk/summer-school

The information given in this publication is correct at the time of going to press. We reserve the right to modify or cancel any statement in it and accept to responsibility of the consequences of any such changes. For the most up-to-date information, please refer to the website qmul.ac.uk.